The right to education focuses on the need to have an inclusive education, which means that educating students with learning difficulties and identified disabilities has the right to attain their educational needs. The institution provides equal opportunities to all students with the guidelines given by the state government.

The main objectives of the "Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1996, enacted by the Government of India on January 1, 1996, are to create a barrier-free environment for persons with disabilities and to make special provisions for such students into academic environment. It requires institutions to create facilities for the benefit of people with visual impairments, as well as slopes in pavements for easy access for wheelchair users. In regard to non-discrimination in the built environment, provisions have been made for ramps and lifts in academic building.

Objectives:

- To ensure that students with disabilities get equal opportunities to explore their potential.
- To provide an environment for students with learning disabilities to assimilate their pedagogic needs.

The focus of the policy is on the following:

- To ensure that the building's design, such as ramps and lifts, is accessible to people with disabilities.
- Learners with disabilities need to be adequately and appropriately supported in and out of the classroom with the right resources and assistive technology, and with leadership, teaching staff, and college communities that are responsive to their needs.
